

Powder River County EMS Event Standby Policy

Any time you have a group of people gathered for an event, show, or festival, odds of a medical emergency increases. Powder River County Emergency Medical Service can provide EMS medical and rescue standby services for indoor or outdoor events of any size. We can supply one or more ambulances and can ensure that event participants and members of the public are cared for.

Dedicated standby service are subject to the availability of crews and in certain circumstances, maybe called out to immediate life threatening emergencies causing a lap of coverage in your event.

Special Event Rates

PRC EMS does not have a set fee for specials event standby services, but donations are greatly appreciated.

Patient Transport

In the event a patient is transported by ambulance to a hospital, the patient is responsible for the payment of those services. Neither the facility nor the event sponsor will be billed for transport services directly.

Ambulances will transport to the closest appropriate facility to provide definitive evaluation and treatment for those in need.

Cancelation Policy

In the event your Event is cancelled we request that you contact the EMS Department as soon as possible.
