

Superintendent of Schools

Powder River County

P.O. Box 718

Broadus, MT 59317

Molly Lloyd

(406) 436-2488

Molly Lloyd is a Montana native, raised in eastern Montana. She moved to Broadus first in 1986, after marrying her husband, Button Lloyd and getting a teaching job at St. Labre Native American Catholic School. She taught 4 years there in Ashland, Montana and then moved to Livingston and taught a year at the Pine Creek Elementary School in Park County. Molly's teaching career took her to many different schools and meeting many different students and fellow teachers. Her longest time teaching was at Canyon Creek Elementary School in Yellowstone County, there she taught 17 enjoyable years. She taught a total of 25 years in various rural and small schools in Montana. Molly is currently serving her second term as Powder River County Superintendent of Schools.

Education

- Miles Community College: Associate of Arts in Education
- MSU-Billings College: BS Major in Elementary Education, with a concentration in science.

Teaching Experience

- * Elementary Teacher, Ashland, MT, St. Labre School, grades 1-2
- * Elementary Teacher, Livingston, MT, grades K-3 and Supervising Teacher K-8
- * Substitute Teacher, Yellowstone County, MT grades K-12
- * Elementary Teacher, Billings, MT grades K-2 and Coaching grades 3rd-8th basketball

Leadership Positions

- Canyon Creek Education Association of Educators, Treasurer
- "I Love to Read" Coordinator, 5 years
- 3&4 YMCA Basketball Coordinator, 3 years
- Powder River Transportation Chair, 5 years
- School Administrators of Montana, Delegate Member

Professional Memberships

- Montana Association of County School Superintendents (MACSS)
- Montana Small Schools Alliance (MSSA)
- Montana Association of School Business Officials (MASBO)